

Query: "lori press bar" - who wins, and why

