

Universal approximation, by hand: any continuous curve is a sum of bumps

Each neuron pair adds one bump (6 shown)

Their sum approximates the target

