

Why the factorisation is not just tidy quadratic in each dimension separately, not in their product

